

SOCIAL DOINGS ALONG LONG ISLAND SOUND

Greenwich Artists Plan Annual Show At Museum There

Reception Will Mark Opening of Exhibition on May 6—Notes of Resort.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

GREENWICH, April 22.—The Greenwich Society of Artists will hold its sixth annual exhibition of paintings, sculpture, architecture, arts and crafts at the Bruce Art and History Museum from May 6 to October 15. On the opening evening there will be a reception. All exhibits must be sent to the gallery before Saturday, April 23, and they will be subject to the decision of the art committee. The president of the society is Mr. Leonard Ochtman. Well known local artists who will exhibit are Messrs. Clarence Rowe, James G. Tyler, Minna Ponda Ochtman, Robert B. Jacobs, Mathilde Brown, Gutson Borglum, E. C. Potter, M. E. Robinson, Clara Wakeman, A. J. Norris, Elmer L. MacRae and Alden Twachtman.

A May fête will be given by the Y. W. C. A. members on May 19 and 20 on the association grounds. The proceeds are to be used to meet the club's camp and conference expenses. A special feature of the event will be a play, "The Wayside Piper," in which a number of young society women will take part.

May 9 is the date set for the concert to be given by the Community Choral Club, composed of Greenwich and Port Chester singers, at the High School Auditorium, Port Chester. Haydn's "Creation" will be given by a chorus of seventy-five voices under the direction of Mr. Frederic C. Studwell, barytone, soloist of the Second Congregational Church, Greenwich. Twelve pieces from the Philharmonic Society Orchestra, New York, will furnish the accompaniment. The soloists will be Miss Grace Kearns, soprano of St. Bartholomew's Church, New York; Mr. Fred Patton, bass soloist of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York; and Mr. Charles Harrison of New York, tenor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews of Quintard place, Sound Beach, have gone to Europe. They will visit England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Belgium and Italy. They will return the last week in May.

Much interest is being manifested in the entertainment to be given for the Victory Memorial Building Fund in Washington at the Haverly auditorium on the afternoon and evening of April 28, when Tony Sarg and his Marionettes will give two performances here. In the afternoon the play will be "The Rose and the Ring" and in the evening "Rip Van Winkle" will be presented. The committee of arrangements here is headed by Miss Gail Treat as chairman.

Mr. Albert H. Wiggin, president of the Chase National Bank, New York, has opened his residence in Belle Haven for the season.

On Thursday morning Mrs. Ida Ellen Serven gave another of her readings from modern drama in the Y. M. C. A. library at 11 o'clock. Her subject was from the group of plays on the stage drama and the play chosen was Benavente's "Fanny Hill."

Bridge Party to Aid Missionaries in China

Mrs. Van Brugh Livingston of 701 Madison avenue, is president of the Maryknoll Foreign Mission Auxiliary, which is to hold a pivot bridge and euchre at the Plaza Thursday afternoon. It is the first time this Catholic society has arranged a public event of the kind. The object is to raise funds for missionaries now in China and other who are to leave for the post in September. Miss Mary E. Tomoney is in charge of the card party. Others on the committee are Countess de Laugher-Villars, Mrs. Robert Collier, Mrs. Anne Dougherty, Mrs. Thomas Hughes Kelly, Mrs. De Lancey A. Kane, Mrs. Henry S. Kissam, Mrs. William Lummis and Mrs. Henry W. Taft. Miss Julia Ward of 16 East Forty-eighth street, is treasurer and has charge of the sale of tickets.

Tennis Contests Draw Visitors at White Sulphur

Interest in Tournament Holds Easter Week Crowds There.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 22.—While the spring season at White Sulphur reached its height Easter Sunday, it has maintained its interest all the week, and the Easter colony has remained with scarcely a break to attend the annual spring tennis tournament of the Greenbrier Tennis Club, which has become a feature here in April.

The players have included some of the best known amateur tennis stars, nearly all of whom took part in the North and South Tournament at Pinehurst last week, and came up on a private car Easter Monday. G. Carleton Shafer of Philadelphia and S. Howard Voshell of Brooklyn, who met in the championship final at Pinehurst, were here, as well as Craig Biddle, Beals C. Wright, Henry R. Guild of Nahant, a member of the Harvard tennis team; E. P. Larned, Frank T. Hunter, national indoor champion; P. M. Whelan, R. E. Bidwell, R. Thonet, Emerson MacMillan 3d, B. F. Briggs, Josiah Wheelwright, Fred Otis, Edgar Leonard, S. Wallis Merrihow, John K. Hodges, Miss Florence Ballin, Miss Martha Bayard and Miss Lillian Scherman.

The finals will be played off tomorrow. Mr. Frederic Sterry of the Plaza Hotel, New York, has given a handsome silver bowl to be awarded to the winner in the men's singles.

In addition to the tennis contingent the colony has been given additional color by the presence of a large diplomatic group from Washington. It has included the Argentine Ambassador, Dr. Tomas A. Le Breton, and Mme. Le Breton; the Chilean Ambassador, Senor Don Bertran Mathieu, and Senora Mathieu, and a number of younger members of the embassies, among whom were Arthur Yenken, Third Secretary of the British Embassy; Hubert Guerin, Attaché of the French Embassy; Capt. de Fregate Jean F. J. E. Rigal, Naval Attaché of the French Embassy; Senor Don Mariano Amodeo, second Secretary of the Spanish Embassy, and Dr. Felipe A. Espil, Secretary of the Argentine Embassy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Sumner Welles of New York, the former of whom has lately resigned from the State Department, have spent the last fortnight here. Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Pavenstedt, the latter of whom was the former Baroness Spec von Sternburg, whose husband was long Ambassador in Washington, are also here, and much informal entertaining has been exchanged between these families and the Washington group.

The tournament matches have been postponed on several mornings because of thunder showers and wet courts, but as a general thing the colony has gathered on the Casino lawn every morning and afternoon to watch the playing. Luncheon as well as tea has been served here and on the Casino veranda so sojourners have spent the week almost entirely out of doors, which has been no hardship, as spring is coming on apace, and this mountain country is lovely, with trees and shrubs now almost in full leaf, and lilacs, dogwood, tulips, forsythia, fruit blossoms and other spring flowers a riot of bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Armour of Chicago, with their Great German shepherd dog, which follows them on a leash, and which they recently acquired at a cost of ten thousand dollars, have been prominent figures in the tennis galleries. Mrs. Craig Biddle has been an interested spectator of the matches seated sometimes with Mrs. Alfred Beadleston of New York.

Amateur Races Draw Many to Garden City

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

GARDEN CITY, L. I., April 22.—The amateur races at the Meadow Brook and Rockaway Hunt Club are attracting much interest owing to the prominence of the various riders who will have a leg up on the high class hunters that will compete in the various events.

Mundy, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Leonard, H. A. Hart, Robert H. Noble, Miss Doreen Perkins, Mr. William C. Pearson and Mrs. J. B. Donchian, all of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Cox, Mrs. S. E. Stokely, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Erwin, Mr. Paul E. Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Peck and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Strong of Brooklyn.

Social Activities At Kew Gardens

Nearly two hundred members of the New York Women's Democratic Club will give a luncheon for their retiring president, Mrs. George H. Childs of Bronxville, at Kew Gardens Inn on May 11. Mrs. Childs, after serving as head of the organization for the last four years, will give up active politics to return to her household duties.

The black and white bal masque renewed social activities at the Inn on Easter Monday evening. Mr. George P. Glenn as "Wood Alcohol" and Miss Louise Sauer as "Baby Vamp" were the first prize winners.

Dinner parties preceding the dance were given by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith, who entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rowe and Mr. Charles D. Dempsey; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Workman, who had as guests Messrs. J. H. Mathison and John Grieg, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ragland.

Arrivals at the Inn include Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Earl, Mr. Robert J. Earl, Miss Bee Leavitt, Mr. H. C. Fisher, Mr. D. H. Arnold, Mr. H. O. Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Duble, Miss Adda Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Arnett, Mr. William S. Carpenter of Princeton
